Chapter 1 by Devix Perez

My mother always told me I was a star ,but so had every mother to their child. This meant that all these kids in Little Creek High School were stars in their own little way believe it or not. Yet how could I, stand out from the rest of theses other stars. Like every human being, I wanted, no, I needed to feel special.

Chapter 2 by LectroGel

I want to feel as if I am one of the star's above, one that everyone must gaze upon, and say to themselves: "What a beautiful starry night it is. But look at that one."

I shall be that star they speak of, the star that shines bright in the night, and all through the morning.

Those are the words I told myself, that one night.

When I was a little star.

But with that imagination of mine, I might as well have become the sun.
